

NEW!

ST. BARNABAS MASS

On Saturday, June 13, 7:30p, St. Barnabas Episcopal Church, Chelsea, MI, will celebrate St. Barnabas Day and cap off its 60th year of worship and service by premiering a new mass dedicated to its patron saint.

All are welcome to participate, and an open rehearsal will be held on the preceding Thursday, June 11, at 7:00p. If you like to sing, and want to help launch a work that's never been heard in its entirety, please come and join us! An ensemble of piano, organ, strings, flute and four vocalists will accompany the Thursday rehearsal and the Saturday celebration.

The setting is by Doug Howell, a professional singer-songwriter who is also a musician at St. Barnabas. The musical style is contemporary and incorporates both gospel and pop flavors. The mass also includes settings of some parts of the liturgy usually not sung, such as the Confession.
